

Our Mission

To tell the story of innovation and ingenuity in New England and America through the early development of the automobile.

Our Vision

To be the premiere brass era automobile museum in America.

To be a lasting commemoration of the genius of Richard Paine Jr., as a pioneer automobile collector.

To be a dynamic educational resource that inspires, enlightens and entertains visitors of all ages.

To be a knowledge center on brass era automobiles, their designers, and manufacturers.

Our Museum

At the Seal Cove Auto Museum visitors find a wide variety of antique autos, from an 1899 DeDion Bouton to a 1927 Ford, with a special emphasis on examples from the "Brass Era" (1895-1917).
